Dear [REDACTED]

We have finished compiling documents that are responsive to your CPRA request CD13.2019.05.23.c. Due to the extraordinary circumstances presented by the COVID-19 pandemic, this request was completed electronically, which delayed its completion. Thank you again for your patience.

Due to the challenges posed by the pandemic, there are a couple different options available to you regarding how you will receive the documents. Please see the options below and let me know your preference:

Option #1 - You can open a request on the "Next Request" portal, and we will add the documents into the request electronically. Please note that, due to the redacting and review process, the documents have not been sorted by date, so if presented in this fashion, the documents will not be in chronological order.

Expected Date of Completion: Tuesday 4/21/20

Option #2 - We can do a final print of all the documents, re-sort them by date, re-scan them, and send them to you electronically. Due to the size of the request, this will likely result in several email batches being sent to you. We will also need a few additional days to complete the request in this fashion.

Expected Date of Completion: Friday 4/24/20

Please let me know which option you prefer and we will complete the request in your preferred fashion.

Thank you and be safe.

Best,

Dan Halden
